

The University of Auckland Centre for Educational Leadership proudly presents Ben Levin

Dr Ben Levin is Professor of Education Leadership and Policy at the University of Toronto, Canada and former Deputy Minister for Education in Ontario and Manitoba. An outstanding and world acclaimed speaker, academic and civil servant, Ben Levin is not to be missed!

How to change 2700 schools identifies the requirements for system-level improvement in education in the context of New Zealand. Built on his recent and internationally acclaimed book, How to change 5000 schools, Ben Levin's address will outline how to create real and lasting improvement across a large number of schools in an education system and specifically New Zealand.

Book now for this unique opportunity to hear one of the world's most respected and influential voices in 21st century education share his insights on system-level school improvement for the purpose of promoting educational success for all learners.

Sponsored by the Faculty of Education

How to change 2700 schools*
- An (early) evening with Professor Ben Levin

CENTRE FOR EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

FACULTY OF EDUCATION
THE UNIVERSITY OF AUCKLAND

Te Whare Wānanga o Tāmaki Makaurau

Auckland/early evening Thursday 18 March 2010

Bookings and further information at www.education.auckland.ac.nz/uacel or uacel@auckland.ac.nz or phone (09) 623 8899 ext 48438