"Tu Rangatira – Critical thought and reflection to improve leadership practice"

Powhiri Notes	Guest Speaker Notes	Workshop Notes	Dinner Notes
1. Our powhiri is being held at Auckland's most prominent inner city Marae – Orakei "Today, Ngati Whatua o Orakei has control and ownership of the marae and consequently continues to resurrect, reactivate and articulate the customs, language and cultural heritage particular to the hapu. The marae is the only ancestral marae on the central Tamaki isthmus and continues to exercise the customary obligations to host and welcome national and international visitors to Tamaki Makaurau."	1. Moana Jackson A Māori lawyer specialising in Treaty of Waitangi and constitutional issues. Moana Jackson is of Ngāti Kahungunu and Ngāti Porou descent. He is presently Director of Nga Kaiwhakamarama i Nga Ture (the Māori Legal Service) which he co-founded in 1987.	1. Workshops – Thursday 11am – 12pm All workshops are an opportunity for participants to see examples of critical thinking in theory and practice in operation. The first two workshops are further opportunities for participants to sit, talk and listen to our guest speakers. The other workshops will be offered twice during the conference. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ An audience with Moana Jackson</li> <li>✓ Kia Atamai – literacy practice in Maori Medium</li> <li>✓ Restorative Practice</li> <li>✓ Career Services</li> <li>✓ Papakura Achievement Initiative</li> <li>✓ CWI – TKI Maori Medium ICT/Resource/Web</li> </ul>	1. Dinner at Orakei Marae Kahurangi ki Maungawhau (AGGS) Kapa Haka roopu performing during the dinner break.
1. The whanau of Takaparawhau have offered conference participants the unique and amazing opportunity to sit and hear their stories and visit the significant sights in their community. The history and activities of the local marae, its land and its people, are a true example of critical leadership.	2. Ann Milne Principal of two decile one schools; Clover Park Middle School, (Years 7 to 10) and Te Whanau o Tupuranga (Years 7 to 13), a designated character, Maori bilingual secondary school, in Otara, Manukau City.
