

MĀORI EMERGING LEADERS & MĀORI FIRST TIME PRINCIPALS' PROGRAMMES FACILITATOR POSITION

Ka tū ai a Te Akatea ki te whakawhānaunga, manaaki, whakapakari hoki kii ngā tumuaki Māori me ngā kaiwhakahaere matua o ngā kura.

Kia hiwa rā! Kia hiwa rā!
Kia hiwa rā ki tēnei tuku
Kia hiwa rā ki tēnā tuku

Haruru ana te moana
Pāpaki kau ana ngā ngaru ki ngā pari kārangaranga puta noa i te motu
Ko Te Akatea tēnei e karanga atu nei
Tihei Mauri ora!

Te Akatea, the New Zealand Māori Principals Association, is establishing two new Māori Leadership programmes that will commence in 2022. This facilitator position is an exciting opportunity to lead and contribute to the development, operationalisation and delivery of these two new and leading programmes.

This is a fixed term position that ends on 31/12/2024 with the start date to be negotiated.

The person that we are seeking will be an exceptional collaborative leader and facilitator who:

- understands the premise of mana motuhake and are committed to reclaiming, revitalising and normalising mātauranga, te reo and tikanga Māori as natural ways of knowing and being in the contexts that they engage in.
- understands Te Tiriti o Waitangi as our constitutional foundation and the responsibilities and promises inherent in this agreement for both tāngata whenua and tāngata tiriti.
- can demonstrate that they understand the aspirations of mana whenua and whānau Māori and have worked in mutually respectful ways with these groups to realise these aspirations.
- can demonstrate that they have effectively led the learning and practice of leaders and kaiako to address inequity and racism by improving the experiences and education outcomes of ākonga Māori and their whānau.
- understands the research regarding 'what works' for ākonga Māori and their whānau and have implemented practices that have been effective in lifting their well-being and achievement.
- understands kaupapa Māori and critical theories to depth and can demonstrate these guiding pou in their practice.
- is able to work effectively as an individual and within a team, and be motivated to pursue new learning opportunities.
- has a relevant qualification, preferably at postgraduate level.

It is essential you have a full driver's licence and be prepared to travel locally as well as out of region.
